What we collect

We collect only the minimum personal information required to administer event registrations and prize draws. This may include:

- Name
- Email address
- Number of visitors included in your booking

How we collect your information

Event registrations are managed through Humanitix. By registering for an Electrify Nelson event, you also agree to Humanitix's Privacy Policy and Terms of Service, which apply to the information collected through their platform.

By registering for an event, you consent to the collection and use of your information as described in this Privacy Statement.

How we store your information

We use trusted third-party providers to collect and store information. These include Humanitix for event registrations, MailerLite for email communications, and Google Workspace (including Gmail and Google Drive) for business administration and document storage.

As these services may store or process data outside New Zealand, your personal information may be transferred to, or accessed from, other countries.

All personal information is managed in accordance with the Privacy Act 2020 and, where applicable, the Public Records Act 2005.

From time to time, anonymised information may be downloaded to a secure private computer for statistical analysis and reporting.

Security

We take reasonable steps to protect the personal information we hold against loss, unauthorised access, disclosure and misuse.

We also ensure that third-party service providers used to process or store information maintain appropriate privacy and security safeguards.

How we use your information

We use your information to:

- administer event registrations and prize draws
- estimate attendance numbers
- contact prize winners
- send event updates and other relevant communications where appropriate.

Where an event registration form states that registering also signs you up to receive updates and alerts, your details will be added to the Electrify Nelson email newsletter database. You can unsubscribe at any time using the link included in every email or by contacting us directly.

We will not sell or share your personal information with third parties for marketing purposes. Other than where necessary to administer Electrify Nelson activities, we will not disclose your personal information without your consent unless required by law.

Accessing, correcting or deleting your information

You may request a copy of the personal information we hold about you by emailing info@electrifynelson.nz.

You may also ask us to correct any information that is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date.

If you unsubscribe from our emails, we will retain only the information necessary to record your unsubscribe preference and ensure you no longer receive email communications.

You may request that your personal information be deleted by emailing info@electrifynelson.nz. Upon receiving a valid request, we will delete all personally identifiable information we hold about you.

We may retain anonymised, non-identifiable information for statistical and reporting purposes, such as the number of event registrations made, provided it cannot reasonably be linked back to you.
